

D & A Building Services is a winner at UCF Athletics

LONGWOOD, Fla., December 1, 2008 —D & A Building Services Inc., founded and owned by UCF alumnus, Al Sarabasa, Jr., has signed a one year renewal contract with the University of Central Florida Athletics Association Inc. for janitorial and carpet cleaning services for 15 buildings on the University's main campus in Orlando. Fla. A crew of six janitorial specialists will perform services daily on office and locker room buildings, the football, softball and baseball stadiums, the rowing facility, the Wayne Densch Sports Center, and a facility for Bright House Networks. D & A Building Services has held similar contracts with the UCF Athletics Association since 2002.